

Skylark, I Will Be There

whenever you feel all alone whenever you feel there is no reason to go on when there is doubt in your heart when there is no one in this world that you can find who will give you support in everything you do and who will believe that you will see things through

i'll be there
i'll be the shoulder you can lean on i'll be your friend you can depend on

there are times when things go wrong yes there are times when you just feel you dont belong there are days when things don't go right yes there were days when you're not willing to fight you will need someone who will tell you its okay someone who believes, believes in you all the way

ooh, i will be there

coda:
i'll be your shoulder
i'll be your friend your friend your friend your friend.. my baby

hmm... yes my baby... hmm... i will be there
