

Slade, I'm Mee I'm Now And That's Orl

Everybody's tellin' me what we do wrong
Everybody tells me where my hat belongs
We know what we're chasin', know which way we're facin'
Everybody tellin' me to hold my tongue.

Well, I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all
I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all

Everybody tellin' me that we're insane
Anything goes wrong, we always get the blame
We know what we're thinkin', when the ladies winkin'
Sure must count for somethin' if they know your name

Well, I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all
I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all

We gotta hold tight yeah - can't you see they're letting we through
We gotta hold tight yeah - can't you see they're letting we through

We say just what we want to cause we might be right
They know it didn't happen to us overnight
We know what we're chasin', know which way we're facin'
All I need's a halo and a dress in white

Well, I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all
I'm me, I'm now and I know that's all

We gotta hold tight yeah - can't you see they're letting we through
We gotta hold tight yeah - can't you see they're letting we through
