

Slade, My Life Is Natural

I played the sands /f time and I loved and lost,
They gave their bodies to two-time whores
They gambled everything they got.
A greedy mind cut out the cards

They even loved with another man's wife.
They even loved her with other men
They've also drank a lot of wine.
Some men have even had a good time

My life is natural, hey hey hey,
My life is natural, said a said a said a
My life is natural, woh woh woh,
My life is natural

Maybe tomorrow a change in the life of the man in the street's gonna come
Maybe tomorrow. Hope it's tomorrow.

You got the sands of time and they piled up high.
They've done their best to wreck their mind.
Instead of joke they told a lie.
They started wars so men could die now.

To try to suss out what is evil and what is good would take a mind wiser than mine
To start a setting the world to rights would take another Christ now

My life is natural, My life is natural,
My life is natural, My life is natural

Maybe tomorrow a change in the life of the man in the street's gonna come
Maybe tomorrow. Hope it's tomorrow.
