

Slade, Sing Shout (Knock Yourself Out)

Oh, I wanna say it's a terrible shame
Gotta find out why It's gettin' too tame
An' I don't know why your sister don't go
You gotta bring her along to a rockin' good show
'Cos she's a mover she's a mover

Gotta sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud
Sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud

Oh, we're gonna play just as loud as you like
An' there's electric comin' over just right
An' with a six-string, drum-beat, a-thunderin' bass
An' a fire down below to put a smile on her face
'Cos she's a mover she's a mover

Gotta sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud
Sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud

Oh, ain't you got no home to go to
We'll be playin' all night if we leave it to you
Oh, I'm goin' down slow an' I'm gonna go get her
When she's good she's so good, An' when she's bad she's much better
'Cos she's a mover an' she's a mover

Gotta sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud
Sing shout knock yourself out
Tell me how to survive by keepin' it loud

Sing shout knock yourself out Sing shout knock yourself out
Sing it, shout it, knock yourself out Sing shout knock yourself out
