Slapshot, Breakaway

Can't climb any mountains can't climb any seas I think all your friends hate me They treat me like I got some fking disease

Breakaway Breakaway

I don't think much of myself You could say I got low self esteem But my heart breaks just like anyones Although to most that's not how it seems

Breakaway Breakaway

It's a form of mindcontrol And it's taking my very soul I don't make friends just enemies And I'll never know what you see in me
