

Slash, Spirit Love (feat. Myles Kennedy and The

It's coming over me
A vision or a dream
A longing ache I can't endure

And there she is at last
My phantom circumstance
She slowly glides across the floor

Here she comes
Here she comes
My apparition of love

She's got me speaking in tongues
As we dance in the midnight sun
But if this is just a dream
I'm never waking up

My Spirit Love
Spirit Love

Forbidden fruit to taste
I never turn away
It seems to me I'll never learn

For now it feels so right
Seduce the afterlife
Regret is only just a word

Here she comes
Here she comes
My apparition of love

She's got me speaking in tongues
As we dance in the midnight sun
But if this is just a dream
I'm never waking
I'm never waking
I'm never waking up

Here she comes
Here she comes
My apparition of love

She's got me speaking in tongues
As we dance in the midnight sun

Here she comes
Here she comes
My apparition of love

She says that I am the one
Under a spell I can't outrun

I guess this was not a dream
I'm never waking up
