

Sleater Kinney, Taste Test bad thoughts bad car bad drive a mess a lot a lie i can't be alone tonight i'm tired i'm hurt i'm fine you've always got me guessing why nothing the same after tonight nothing is gonna make it right keep the house quiet dark tonight one sour one sweet one lime taste both taste yours taste mine too late too long no light you've always got me guessing why

tell me what's going on inside (where are you now where did you go) that's how things happen to find you and how am i gonna tell you don't start i'm not gonna fight you could be i'm not gonna find you
