

Slechtvalk, My Eternal Beloved

At last our eyes, they meet again
I feel a shiver through my veins
Your eyes they look so cold
It makes my heart bleed

Every single day my love for you grows
Every day this torment shrieks through my soul

I have made the wrong choice, to fall in love with you
Daughter of Darkness, you hate to dwell in light

Now, I have to abandon you for my soul's sake
There is no future for us, only my dreadful sorrow

Your cold stare still burns in my heart
Don't leave me with this pain, walk with me into the light

I shall always love you
My eternal beloved
