

Sleepthief, Sublunar (Sweet Angel)

Well, the lights are on and I don't feel safe
By this tainted window
So if you're looking in, you might see the pain
But I don't want you to know, so...

(chorus)

Just go on pretending that you don't know
All I am is empty, an empty world in my heart In my heart, in my heart, in my heart

Sweet angel sweet angel sweet angel

All my pretty things make you stop and think
I must be a sweet angel
But when the glitter smears and the wires appear
You'll see I'm horribly mangled, but
Hush hush hush la da da da
Hush hush hush hush hush
Hush hush hush hush hush hush la da da da da, da da

(chorus)

Sweet angel sweet angel sweet angel
