

Slightly Stoopid, Killing Me Deep Inside

i seen a little girly crying and she was looking so sad i wondered why but then I realized the pain that she had deep on the inside something you can't understand i got to take her back and now she's holding my hand.
i'm like a man with just one dollar who wont give it away but unless i'm all up on the mic i aint got nothin' to say i'm just a young man yo trying to make one more day and i'm a bad boy so they don't mess with me.
cause we used to have a drummer the boy was he a bummer we gonna go take a drum machine on tour with us this summer people come along but then they get smacked back but then the double oh seven when i look into your eyes i realize love passes by,
now i know it's time to walk away
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
no no, yeah yeah
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside no no, yeah yeah yeah i said the people upon the world are not to see that all this fussin n' fighting no it's not for me but yes me just a man but upon the micro phone stand who wants to give us some good lovin' through the night said if you got a problem an' me don't understand the fuckin' reason that me comin' around claiming de man who be the one who, were tearing your heart up in two and dem' come rockin' upon the microphone while givin' it to you.
when i look in to your eyes i realize love passes by
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep,they're killing me deep inside no no, no, no i say now call 9-1-1
i said now call 9-1-1 the police is after me and now i'm running with this gun you know them punks start some static and you know that they can have it with my nine millimeter, or an uzi or a mack cause i got the feeling that nobody can see me, hear me, feel me, or even get near me the invisible man he does the best that he can he's survivin' a world that nobody understands but then i'm sick of all the pressure and insanity that seems to come without warning it's always after me i'm trying to live in my life i wanna do what is right but if you test me boy i'll blow you up like dynamite cause they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside
they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside no no no yeah
they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside

they're killing me deep they're killing me deep inside

(china girls)

also:

im sitting back on my couch, i'm trying to ease the pain because it feels like the world is sitting up on my brain insanity is creeping, it's coming up upon me what the fuck am i gonna do cause none of you can fucking help me
