Sloan, A Side Wins

Where is my camera This picture denies all my ties To this side of the road And maybe in Florida I'd hold up myself for the keys To the cramp in your style

I raise my glass to the cut and dry To the amplified I raise my glass to the B-side

I, I live through everything 'Cause I'm overdressed Yeah overdressed when I'm put to a test

If news Of every inch of you, were sold by Friday In my way, I'd spread your wealth And drink up to your health

I raise my glass to the cut and dry To the amplified I raise my glass to the B-side
