

Sloan, C'mon C'mon (Were Gonna Get It Started)

C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted, yeah
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted

There's been debate and some speculation
Have you heard, well here's the word
Whether you're part of this constellation
Your reading light is the subway, darling
You've memorized those lines
Leading the life that you always thought you'd hope you'd love

So c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted, yeah
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted, yeah

And we can help you through this little problem
Put on your leather jacket so you can rock them
And take your final bow tonight

You're on time but the ones that you love
Have left you miles behind
Leading the life that they always thought they'd hope you'd love

So c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
It's time you got it started
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
It's time you got it started
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted, yeah
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon
We're gonna get it started
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The only thing that's left to do
Is cure the broken-hearted
