

Sloan, Who Loves Life More?

Stayed up one time
Until late in the evening
I had so much fun
I couldn't help myself
I knew I had to see the rising sun

I did and thought even then
I didn't want that moment to end

For some it's enough
But gimme some more
Staying up or staying in
Who loves life more?

Though I have to confess
I blacked out while I was still dressed

Some do the work
That others ignore
They'll be busy but
Who loves life more?

Early to rise
I was working one morning
I got so much done
I had been up for hours but knew
I had see the setting sun

I did and thought even then
I didn't want that moment to end

For some it's a pleasure
And others a chore
Schedules or sleeping in
Who loves life more?

Though I have to admit
Near the end I slacked off a bit

Some people play
But are they secure?
They get by but
Who loves life more?

Stayed up one time
Until late in the evening
(I had so much fun)
Stayed up one time
Until late in the evening
(I couldn't help myself...)

I did and thought even then
I didn't want that moment to end

Restoring the mind
Or minding the store
Punching in or punching out
Who loves life more?

Though I have to suggest
A small dose of both would be best

For some it's enough
But gimme some more

Breathing in or breathing out
Who loves life more?
