

Slowlife, Humiliation

You made a killer of an angel.
He tried to kill another child.
Another angel is dead.

Yeah the world supports me.
The world supports my deeds.
This world created me.
This world is my world.

Remember me.

You put a mockingbird in heaven.
It didn't scare you when he died (when he died)
Look at him now.
Your fuel - the fear in his cry.
Look at me now.
This time it's my time.

And the world supports me.
The world supports my deeds.
This world created me.
This world is my world.

You will feel my presence.
Cause I'll watch you every day.
Remember that.
I can't watch you plague the world.
Cause you made me live it.
I can't change this world for real.
So I'll finish you right now.
