

slowthai, Toaster

when i was s young and a reoccurring dream that i'd be getting chased from outside i'd run up in the house
and we used to have old windows these are new double glazed ones but it was like old ones you could open like that and i'd always run and jump out and before i hit the floor i'd wake up and eyeah...
it feels bare weird
