

Smash The Statues, Killed By You

Can you hear her calling? Calling out
Trapped inside a prison cell of fear
Can you hear the calling? I'm calling now
What's left of her won't see another day

And now her time has come
She won't be forced to take it anymore
Now she's gone, Washed away

We all see it.
We all hear it.
We just don't seem to care.

This girl was killed by you, you know
