Smashing Pumpkins, This Time

This time I need to know I really must be told if it's over It's up to you, you know The things you really want to hold are in pieces

Crashing down Crashing down again Crashing down Crashing down my friends

I've got to move it on I've got to sing my song while i still can Dispatch the last alarms and of the last few shards They're still surprising

Only love Only love can win Crashing down Crashing down again

This time I need to know I really must be told that it's over I've lived my life alone My every step fortold to never linger And yet it haunts me so What are we letting go The spell is broken

Crashing down Crashing down my friend Crashing down Crashing down again

Only love, yeah Only love will be enough, yeah Only love will win

Ffor every chemical You trade a piece of your soul You know me time And who you think you know doesn't know you at all Portrayed as needless

Someday we'll wave hello and wish we'd never waved goodbye to those brown eyes We'll drink up every line and shoot up everyone until it's no more

Crashing down Crashing down my friends Only love Only love can win

So cry these tears We'll cry is all We've held so long to fall apart As the curtain falls we bid you all goodnight
