

Smaxone, Smiling

Smiling
Cause I thought
I was dreaming
I thought
I was someone new
What ever can I do
I see
All the pretty
Things around me
All the colours
In the day so blue
What ever can I do

Changes brought
With each new day
A glimpse of happiness
The demon land
In my memories
Is now a sealed
Bridge to my past

Darkness fade away
Makes me want to stay
Makes me want to scream out
I can live this way
Sunsets half-shaped moons
Never-ending tunes
Goodbye state of
Pain I'm leaving

Smiling
Cause I thought
I was dreaming
I thought
I was someone new
What ever can I do
I see
All the pretty
Things around me
All the colours
In the day so blue
What ever can I do

Used to be
Alone with my thoughts
Empty and in despair
Used to cry myself into sleep
I remember the feeling
Of my soul wound so deep
Used to see all in black and white
But now I'm happy the colours
Are back in my life

Darkness fade away
Makes me want to stay
I can live this way
Goodbye state of
Pain I'm leaving

Smiling
Cause I thought

I was dreaming
I thought
I was someone new
What ever can I do
I see
All the pretty
Things around me
All the colours
In the day so blue
What ever can I do

Someone new
I'm someone new Someone new

Changes brought
With each new day
The demon land
In my memories
Is now a sealed
Bridge to my past
