

Smiley Kids, Love Your Enimies

You looked me in the eye, just as you stabbed me in the back, and i was so angry so scared, ya, you humiliated me me and smashed my pride down to the ground and i am so thankful, so lucky

Love your enimies even though they hate your guts,ya love your enimies even though they make me cry

You hit me on the cheek, so i turned the other one and you spat on me, you spread these rumors about me and say bad things behind my back, and i am so happy, i'm still smiling!
