

Smoke Or Fire, The Hard Way

I made a big mistake thinking how? its gonna taste some people are destined to fail some people aren't meant to be great
I've seen the sad and lonely
Words to times i burnt off the tracks
And those were so so's? going
Throwing all? it's far too long to run?

Goodbye ay, men?
Goodbye
Goodbye your friends
Goodbye
Goodbye it's gonna be alright
We're free in life
And i've learned that the hard way.

Now I'm on attack through the linguid senses
Mistakes I need to erase.
You're dead and gone in a bottle in to heaven
Maybe I could say that you were in a better place

I've seen the sad and lonely
Words to times i burnt off the tracks
And those were so so's? going
(Throwing all?) it's far too long to run?

Goodbye ay, men?
Goodbye
Goodbye always
Goodbye
Goodbye it's gonna be alright
We're free in life
And I've learned that the hard way.

Why can't you hate me?
I'm far too young.

Corrections welcome, this was the best I could do!
