

Smokie, Little Town Flirt

If you want my sympathy
Just open up your heart to me
You'll get whatever you'll ever need
You think that's too high for you
Oh but baby, I would die for you
When there's nothing left, you know where I'll be Lay back in the arms of someone
Give into the charms of someone
Lay back in the arms of someone you love
Lay back in the arms of someone
When you feel you're a part of someone
Lay back in the arms of someone you love So baby just call on me
When you want all of me
And I'll be your lover, I'll be your friend
And there's nothing I won't do
'Cos baby, I just live for you
With nothing to hide, no need to pretend Lay back in the arms of someone
Give into the charms of someone
Lay back in the arms of someone you love
Lay back in the arms of someone
When you feel you're a part of someone Lay back in the arms of someone you love Oh I know that's too high for you
But baby, I would die for you
When there's nothing left, I'll be with you Lay back in the arms of someone
Give into the charms of someone
Lay back in the arms of someone you love
Lay back in the arms of someone
When you feel you're a part of someone
Lay back in the arms of someone you love
No, I know
