

Smoking Popes, Just Broke Up

Just broke up with my girlfriend
Just broke up with my girlfriend
I let this thing get out of hand
She needs me more than I can stand
It didn't work out like I wanted

She started holding on to tight
So I let her go tonight
I've got no regrets at all

Just broke up with my girlfriend
Just broke up with my girlfriend

I thought I'd have some fun with her
For awhile there we were, having so much fun
Until I realized once more
She's not the one I'm looking for
Will I ever love again?

Just broke up with my girlfriend [repeat until end of song]
