Smoking Popes, Theme From "Cheerleader"

Proud to wear the uniform Of a man who won't conform Learning how to fit the mold Of a man who can't be told

Climb aboard that tour bus Down the road less traveled Every song sounds like the last one Let's make this next one a fast one

I don't think the way to see something Is to stand behind somebody else I don't think the way to say something Is to be a cheerleader