

Smooosh, Pygmy Motorcycle

Why do you, you seem so afraid?
But I can't figure you out
And I don't know why you are Doing it every single time I look
I see the same old thing, yeah

Why do you hide behind?
Everybody's backs and I don't know why
You come home late from your work everyday
And you have bags of money hidden away
Inside your closet but they don't know why

And I would like to say
Why do you always hide behind?
Everyone's back now I don't know why
You don't seem to have any
Expectations for yourself

Why do hide behind
Everybody's backs and I don't know why
Opportunities pass you by and you
Don't seem to have any friends
You go to work so I really don't know why

And I would like to say
Why do you always hide behind?
Everybody's backs now I don't know why
And I would like to say
You don't seem to have any goals in your life
Goals in your life

Sometimes and I know that
Sometimes when I try to help you
You just won't seem to listen to me
When you have opportunities at home
