

SNAFU, Control

Everyone tries to control me,
Everything's overwhelming me.
They are following my all reactions
And conspire about me.

Chorus x 2

I want to have normal life
And I don't want anyone to follow me.
I hate this hyena which
Is looking at me all the time.
There's nothing you know about me,
You don't know me
So why are you judging me?
I can't trust anyone.

Everyone lies, cheats and exploits.
So what can I do?

Perhaps - to be like they are,
Although it's against my will.
I don't want that, but this is
A fucking sick life.

Chorus x 2

(They try to control me)
They are still watching me,
I'm feeling like in prison.
I can't leave this place,
I can't escape from it.
I'm feeling their eyes on me.
This is the way without escape.
Like puppets on strings,
like animals in zoo.
This is what I'm feeling.
You are in your hide-out and you are scared to show your face.
I don't need you,
so get out of my way,
so get out of my life.

Chorus x 2
