

Snooky Pryor, You Set Me Free

(Harmonica Intro)

I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
Yes my heart was locked up ah, you came and set me free

I wanna love you in the morning, love you in the evening too
I wanna love you in the morning, love you in the evening too
I wanna spend my life loving, no one else but you

(Harmonica Solo)

I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
Yes my heart was locked up ah, you came and set me free

(Guitar Solo)

I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
I wanna thank you pretty baby for being so kind to me
Yes my heart was locked up ah, you came and set me free

(Harmonica Solo)

I'm going to a fortune teller to get my fortune read
Yes I'm going to the gypsy-ah to get my fortune read
Yes she said you don't love me, all you want is my bread
(Goodbye!)

(Harmonica Solo)
