

Snot, Take It Back

It's so fucked I am here doing this
It's bullshit, things don't end like this

I'm calling
Staring into this place
Where I cease to exist
Wondering, why do things always end up like this

Fly
Take to the sky another another dream of empty
Lies
Of promises denied by a forgiving
God
Who eats his young you're nothing you fucking
Fraud
My belief was betrayed I lost my faith in you
Try
To understand the sorrow and the
Why
Of a light that should still be burning
Bright
The angel in flight with a dog by his Side
When you took him away I lost my faith in even you!!

As I feel emptiness growing in my heart
I can't help but scream into hating you
I bet you think it's funny
You give us a gift and then you take it back
