

Snow Patrol feat. Martha Wainwright, When It's A

You're not fair
Telling me
You faked every orgasm
You've had with me

That's just fine
Now it's over
And I'm out here
Banging my head

You're not fair
Telling me
You faked every orgasm
You've had with me

That's just fine
Now it's over
And I'm out here
Banging my head

After all the dancing
And spilling beer all over the place
I lie out here
In disgrace

You've had your fun
Kissed some bloke you shouldn't have
Right in front of me
I punched him to the floor
I could have killed him there
But I got thrown out
I'll get him some other time
When he least expects it
