

Snuff, Lies

Could promise you everything never a limit
Could promise the land & sea
& everything in it
Could promise the earth
& never deliver
I can see the one hand where the fuck's the other
Not another lie
Cheat it and connive it
Not another lie
Deceive it and deny it

Streets full of weirdos
Shops full of crap
Pub & sods & oddballs
Wine bars full of twats
Sense of smells the longest
The memory that lingers longest
The wamr smell of bullshit can drift for miles & miles
Surely not a lie
Cheat it and connive it
Not another lie
Deceive it and deny it
Not another lie
If you're gonna cheat to prosper
Not another lie
Its gonna cost you in the end
Surely not a lie
Lie & cheat, connive & steal
Where hatred finds a place to hide
Bitterness takes a bite
& the money gets all the best seats again
