

Snuff, Nick Northen

Where's the love you took from me
How am I supposed to carry on
Just emptiness inside me
Where the flame of love burned so strong

Where has it gone that burning flame of love
Where's it gone
How am I supposed to carry on

No more the tenderness
What happened to the love we shared
No more the warm caress
Just emptiness & despair

I see my dreams burn before my eyes

I'm left with yesterday
Left with trouble on my mind
No more the warm caress
Just emptiness & despair

I see my dreams burn before my eyes
