

Soccx, Another Girl

Verse:

It's Friday 6:30 and I'm waiting for your call You said you'd let me know Let me know when you'd be home
Why do you make me wait
Why do you take your time
Why do you act this way
When you know I care and you're on my mind

Bridge:

Tell me what it is you want boy you know I tried my best to please you and make it right

Chorus:

Is it another girl whose staying by your side boy don't you play boy don't you lie cause if it's another girl whose staying by your side then I'm gonna go my way don't wanna play your games

Verse:

Yes finally you're there and yes we need to talk wanna ask you where I stand and the reason why you didn't call I asked you once baby and I'm gonna ask again Do you treat me this way cause in your heart there's another woman

B-section:

boy I think about us everynight and I wonder if I'm doin right I don't ever wanna let you go
But I don't know if your mine Tell me if it is another girl Speak the truth and understand I gave my love and all my time Does it even matter boy Or have I lost your love
