At night I close my eyes
All I wanna do is think about you baby
Your pretty face your eyes your warm and tender smile
All I wanna do is feel your body
Your silky brown skin pressed against mine our lips sealed
With the promise of never letting go
Girl to me you're an angel
I would never go and tell
Girl you better put your spell on me

Hold me
Love me
I want you to hold me
Being with you is all I need

Baby every night now realize
That maybe one day you'll be my wife
And if you take a close look at the skies
With a love like this our sun will rise
