

Social Distortion, Reach For The Sky

When I was young I was invincible,
I find myself now thinking twice,
I never thought about no future,
Its just the roll of the dice.

But the day may come when you've got something to lose,
And just when you think you're done paying dues
And you say to yourself, dear God what Have I done?
And hope its not too late 'cause tomorrow may never come.

[Chorus:]

Reach For the Sky, 'cause tomorrow may never come
Reach For the Sky, 'cause tomorrow may never come

Yesterday is history and tomorrow's a mystery
But baby right now, its just about you and me,
You can run you can hide, just like Bonnie and Clyde
Reach for the sky ain't never gonna die,
And I thank the Lord for the love I have found
And hold you tight cause tomorrow may never come.

[Chorus]

So if you please take this moment
Try if you can make it last
Don't think about no future and just forget about the past
And make it last.

[Chorus]
