

Social Siberia, The love song

Someway between a broken arrow and a wingless kite I felt one night
Right between my own hate and someone elses punch
I saw you hand

I wont let you down, So turn it up
Words are sometimes all I have
This song is just for you
I know that nothing can change what youve done
I dedicate every breath to you

Someway between weightless body and a cloudless sky
You make me feel your always filling in when im torn with holes
Please make this last

When I breath its trough your lungs
When I hide its in your shade
I hold on tightly to your hand like a child
Believe me, youre the center of my world thats a fact Believe me Im lost in you forever and

I wont let you down, So turn it up
Words are sometimes all I have
This song is just for you
I know that nothing can change what youve done
I dedicate every breath to you
Words are sometimes all I have
And sometimes all you need
