

Sodom, Cannon Fodder

i feel like someone's watching me don't know where the enemy is the night brings bad dreams to my mind maybe the girl that's by my side potential killers extremely mauled machine gun fire all around into the eye of a hurricane the ultimate end i got no power to survive empty thoughts of suicide psychotic wounds that never heal you put the crown of thorns on me cowards in the grip of fear a fox the chicken disappear creation of the lifeless rules no return

all my heros
fighting legions
crucified in flames
cannon fodder
rivers of red
russian roulette
gambling hypocrites

no scream will ever intimidate upon the dark side of a man walk among the bursting grenades ghosts of vietnam penetrate burning towns up over there teaching freedom death parade snipers pointing accurate living on the edge

crucified in flames
gambling hypocrites
