

Sodom, I Am The War

no emotions to take your life confrontation with the dead inside wasted thousand centuries now fighting for the endless peace

adrenaline control
forever fixed my soul
curse by my side
judgement in disguise

i am the war
never disarmed
i am the war
within my heart
i am the war
supreme command
i am the war
living on the edge
i am the war

i smell the rats of mendacity napalm for your nudity
i practice what i preach my god dehydration of your blood

curse by my side
judgement in disguise

never disarmed
i am the war
within my heart
i am the war
supreme command
i am the war
living on the edge

i am the war
i cannot build but i can destroy insanity concealed
all the structures have been lost totally de cease

i am the war
never disarmed
i am the war
within my heart
i am the war
supreme command
i am the war
living on the edge

infected by unnatural aggression driven by abnormal death selection no antibodies that fixed my mind no teardrop dims my savage eyes

adrenaline control

i am the war
i am the war

i am the war...
