

Soen, Hollowed Feat. Elisa

Come to me
Hold me close to your side
'Cause I still depend on your hurting words

Talk to me
Ease my need to be heard
Choke this flame that is burning our home

Are we strong enough to move on
From this never-ending loneliness?
Will we find the will to find hope?
Will our demons soon be laid to rest?

'Cause we're nothing but a shadow
Nothing but a shade
Nothing but a shadow
Nothing but a shade

Promise me
That one day when you're done
You will cut out this thorn from my heart

Because both of us are searching for a reason
A clue on why we have to carry on
So tell me why it feels like it is treason
To leave our home

'Cause we're nothing but a shadow
Nothing but a shade
Nothing but a shadow
Nothing but a shade

Time does nothing but help us heal
Still nothing will ever be as real as the times we had
And that has now left our lives
