

Sofa, I.L.Y.

REF: I love you, I do in every way,
in every way - every day, girl!

STUB: Lies, lies, lulabies..

Stop lying girl, 'coz you keep on lyin'!

1.

What's the problem girl,

what's goin' on in your world!

Are you dazed and confused

just today you were amused?

What goes up must come down -

what we thought was love

was just fooling around.

I'm not gonna be a fool or a clown, no!

It was a tuesday afternoon and you were standing in the street.

I had no time to speak to you

- you made your way.

That was the second time you left misunderstood, with no respect.

I never stopped you on your way -

you didn't wait.

I need some critical assistance

for my feelings, I need some spiritual healing.

You were the one that I believed in.

I was the one who was in L.O.V.E.

Then you deceived me even caused me to cry

enough is enough, let's call it a night!

I don't give a fuck! No more you and I!

Enough is enough, let's call it a night!

REF: I love you, I do in every way,

in every way - every day, girl!

I'm all alone staring at the ceiling

locked in my bedroom.

Thoughts about the day when I first met you

I couldn't get you off my mental!

The way we did what we did, yo!

- all over my friend's couch!

Today I know I chose wrong.

I still keep thinking on and on.

I was so speechless and so stern

and so were you...

Misunderstanding led to this -

I know that better than before.

That day I didn't make it clear and I felt bad...

This shit is getting much too much for me to handle, yo!

Like M.E.T.H.O.D. and D'Angelo.

You and I till the day we die,

until the day I saw you with that guy.

Now it's more like - I wanna commit suicide.

Now it's more like - I'm gonna commit suicide.

You and I...I'm not gonna be a foolish guy!

I think it's do or die, no more you and I, no more!

REF: I love you...
