

Sofia Loell, I'm Good

To my life experience
I would like to add all my freaked complete mistakes and the consequences they've had then I'm gonna write a book so that when I'm dead and gone there'll be something left of me to show the world I've won

I will be immortal then I will live long past my death
I won't be just anyone I'm gonna have what I deserve

I know I'm good - I know I'm everything I know the world wouldn't live a day without me cause I know I'm victory (so) hang with me - it's a guarantee for your own star constellation

To my life experience
I would like to add
all my secret fantasies
and the consequences they've had then I'm gonna save a piece just a little piece of me cause how could I deny myself give the world a chance to see

I will be....
