

Sofia Loell, I Understand

Take a little time to cool your mind there's a lot of sadness there everybody gets into trouble sometimes and need some time alone memories aren't always good they can steal your peace also and if you need some time alone - I understand

I can see tears in your eyes but you won't cry in front of me well, I can't share the pain that you don't want me to see living is the hardest thing still it's worth the doing But if you need to sort you out - I understand

Leave me alone is what your eyes tells me but I wont just desert you when you need me as most if you need to get through this alone please don't shut me out, I love you - I understand

Oh deep inside your eyes I see the child that you once were tell me please what keeps the key to your so hard tied up soul baby let me help you, let me please come close to you and if you need to sort you out - I understand leave me alone...
