

Sofie, Aaron

well he said goodbye but it all happened before this time let's start off that he meant something leading me nowhere well he kissed my eyes he never wanna try to bring me down continue but stop if it's a lie just tell me the truth and it's all gonna be alright when you're ready to be my everything

you can pass the line and imagine
all this time
well you come by then
this i would bring
but can't end up my heart torn
i love you aaron

well he kept shaking his head up and down he thinks i'm his everything dragged my feet over the town i can see in away he lead me nowhere but he gives me something

the kiss appeared just yesterday i see in a way before you come closer you nod down but you can't give me nothing cos you're my only something
