

Sofie, Back To My Ending

you held me up the city so far away from the ground you lift me up around don't be confused
I don't want to refuse to for you to let me go I
never felt this way
never rode the trains

You let me go like a puppet
you lost me in a bet
but you come to my beginning
now it's back to my ending i lost my life falling down I spent my mind bleeding on the ground this is my beginning

this time I'm waking up but too late I've been dropped lately I was thinking the same way you never listen but you don't mind your business You boast me but you don't even see how I got fallen down just for you yaaa

you pressed me on my head you don't know instead
now it's all my beginning
and all it comes back to my ending

it's nice for you that you were there but you pretend that you really care am i the only one who figures it out all but it's too late i'm about to fall let me all work this out

(guitar solo)

I came back to my beginning but you dragged me to my ending
