Soft Cell, Together Alone

Another day melts into the evening I sit alone and watch the stars Remembering times I think of the past

Here in my isolation In the solitary situation Reality hurts Where memories last

When you whisper my name in the silence You stop my heart with a touch of violence We'll always be Together alone

You're a breath in my ear You're a word in my mind I'm here on my own Just two of a kind Together alone Together alone

You share in my deepest secrets You're here in my darkest moment Together alone Together alone

You know what I'm always thinking You lift my mood when I'm sinking Together alone Together alone

When you're here in my arms I'm dreaming of you
Life will end when I stop
Believing in you
Together alone
Together alone

You're like a shadow At the edge of my eye Like a chill in the air Like a light in the sky Like the endless peace after we die

You're a breath in my ear You're a word in my mind I'm here on my own Just two of a kind Together alone Together alone

I don't need anybody I don't want anybody I'm on my own Together alone

Nobody can understand us Nobody to make demands on us Together alone Together alone

And as the bombs are falling I hear a voice that's calling

Together alone Together alone

You're a breath in my ear You're a word in my mind I'm here on my own Just two of a kind Together alone Together alone

Are you listening to me now? Are you listening to me now? Together alone Together alone

You're deep in my heart now You're deep in my soul now Together alone Forever alone

You're a breath in my ear You're a word in my mind I'm here on my own Just two of a kind Together alone Together alone Together alone Forever alone Are you listening to me now? Are you listening to me now? Together alone Forever alone Together alone Together alone Are you listening to me now? Are you listening to me now?
