

Soilwork, Grand Failure Anthem

Look at the pale
Face in the sky
It seems so
Ravaged inside
The sense of rage
Is burning my eyes
Burning in my eyes,
Burning to deny
I'm apart of
A fallen machine
Which reflects
My life of misery
Please guide
My way through
Fallen galaxies

Grand failure anthem
You'll never see what
You've become
We want to get some
Well-earned respect
Before we choke

Well,there isn't anything
That will kill our lust
Our lust for power
They say "May you get
An hour in heaven
Before the devil
Knows your dead!"

Grand failure anthem
You'll never see what
You've become
We want to get some
Well-earned respect
Cause we have
Failed, failed, failed!
Ripped another spine
Til'the end of time
Failed, failed, failed!
We're being flushed
Down the drain

And the one you hate
Will suddenly be yourself
And it's all to late...

Anything, anything what will
Make my conscience clean
Is there anyone out there
Who can restore
What we have destroyed?

Grand failure anthem
You'll never see what
You've become
We want to get some
Well-earned respect
Cause we have
Failed, failed, failed!
Ripped another spine
Til'the end of time
Failed, failed, failed!

We're being flushed
Down the drain

And the one you hate
And it's all to late...

Disruptive and bound
To kill itself
The face of earth will turn
When you're crawling
To the cross
And your inner thoughts
Reveal themselves

Grand failure anthem
You'll never see what
You've become
We want to get some
Well-earned respect
Cause we have
Failed, failed, failed!
Ripped another spine
Til'the end of time
Failed, failed, failed!
We're being flushed
Down the drain

And the one you hate
And it's all to late...

-Solos-

So you have died
Your pale face in the sky
The rage is burning
Burning my eyes
I'm blind

Grand failure anthem
We'll never see
What we've become
We'll never get some
Well-earned respect
