

Solabeat Alliance, People Of The World

This one goes out to the people of the world,
Let the rhythm above you take control,
All of the people searching a life solution triumphs forgotten memories left to fade,
Pressure created weakens, a soul dilution,
Burn all of the bridges that we made,
Don't bring me down, all i want and all i need is oh so clear,
Won't you hold me close and protect i feel no fear,
All of the people searching a redirection leaving believing nothing you could have known,
Pressure created weakens, a disconnection,
Burn all of the bridges as we go,
All i want and all i need is oh so clear,
Won't you come tread my dance and linger here?
