

Sōlborn, A World Outside

Dusting off this crown
Picking pieces up off the ground
What was broken is on the mend
Pain is not who I am

Don't know up from down
Left or right
Think I'm inside out
Have to redefine myself everyday
HEY

Where theres will theres a way
Who's to say nows not the time
It's time

Now I'm moving on
Theres a world outside these walls
Now its about time for them to fall
Yeah I'm moving on
Theres a world outside these walls
Yeah I'm thinking its time
Its time for them to fall

Trapped inside for way too long
Never thought I'd see the stars again, again
Finally I broke out from myself, my prison
Phoenix from burning embers arisen

I know the truth can be bold
Sometimes it has to be told
The past is gone
The future will come
So focus on now
You're gunna get better today

Now I'm moving on
Theres a world outside these walls
Now its about time for them to fall
Yeah I'm moving on
Theres a world outside these walls
Yeah I'm thinking its time
Its time for them to fall!
