

Someone Still Loves You Boris Yeltsin, Pangea

it&#039;s always something
it&#039;s always something you told a lie, just aside of feeling nothing you spend yr Sundays, avoiding trouble while underground there&#039;s a whirlpool humming don&#039;t say i never, you know it&#039;s nothing I&#039;ve seen your hands man they couldn&#039;t be whiter so send a wire, write a letter, let me know if your there and if your hearts still thumping

pangea we used to be together, why&#039;d we have to drift apart

get up, and get out

I&#039;ve seen your hands man they couldn&#039;t be whiter send a wire, write a letter,

oh oh, and it sounds much better, when sound comes together if you get this letter, keep it in a box with all my sox you lost and you found you used to be around, tell me why&#039;d we have to drift apart
