

Somersault, Not In This World

Please don't wake me; I'm sleeping a bit
I'm so tired of the fears in me
Don't come closer; I'll burn you down

Cause I'm wrapped in a flame
Rest my limbs in your chains

I'm not living in this world
I'm hiding in my heart and falling apart
Just from dreaming
Not living in this world is feeling so absurd
Cause I could tell
With every cell I'm hiding myself from you

Treat me gently
Under the pure white snow I hear you, till the days are grown
Hold me closer; I'm falling down

Cause I'm wrapped in a flame
Rest my limbs in your chains

I'm not living in this world
I'm hiding in my heart and falling apart
Just from dreaming
Not living in this world is feeling so absurd
Cause I could tell
With every cell I'm hiding myself from you
