Something Corporate, Runaway

If you ran to the end of the earth
I would catch you and you would be safe
If you fell down a well
I would bring you a rope
And take all of your pain
All the pain all the pain
That you hide from me every day

If you're missing I would run away
I would build a path to you
If you're missing I would run away
Because I find myself in you

If I woke up alone
I won't stop 'til I find you and you are with me
'Cause by now, I know you better than you know yourself
And I know what you really need
What you need, or I need
But either way this is where you should be, here with me
Or I'll bleed so much that you won't believe

If you're missing I would run away
I would build a path to you
If you're missing I would run away
Because I find myself in you

You better not, you better not run
You better not, you better not run

If you're missing I would runaway
I would build a path to you
If you're missing I will run away
I will find you, I will find you, I will find you
