

Son Of A Plumber, I Never Quite Got Over The F

Took a walk by the main canal
I turned around
Made a left by your big brown house
I turned around
There was a song I heard
I knew I had to go

That's me in the summertime...
That's me in the summertime...

Took a ride to the waterside
I turned around
To the rocks, cracks and stones
I turned around
There was a face in the crowd
I swear, she looked like you

That's me in the summertime...
That's me in the summertime...
